

Against The Current, jump

Why you so afraid to face it?
Why you so okay with wasting time?
Better happier to fake it
Lost inside
Back, back home

So if you wanna run away
Tired of dreaming when it's all about
Never time to get close
Try to change , but you choke
Don't be afraid to let it go

So just jump
What are you waiting for?
Don;t be afraid of wanting something more
Jump
Until te deep end
To find your way back up
Don;t be afraid of waiting more
Just jump

You onlu miss it when it's all gone
It's hard to see cause you sunk so low
You keep on saying that the sun's gone
Lost inside
Back home

So if you wanna run away
Tired of dreaming when it's all about
Never time to get close
Try to change , but you choke
Don't be afraid to let it go

So just jump
What are you waiting for?
Don;t be afraid of wanting something more
Jump
Until te deep end
To find your way back up
Don;t be afraid of waiting more
Just jump
