Point of You

Taking it to me and about me.
Question my strength,
you know they doubt me.
They dont know everything about me.
They dont know anything about me.
Everything they say is wrong.
Everything they see is a misconception.
They never get me down.
I turn my back, I refuse to listen.
Guilty of a horrible sin,
I thought first of myself and then them.
They dont seem to like that line of thought from me.
They say Im selfish,
they say Im mean. what can I do,
Im only human,
Im trying. cant live for someone else,
that would be like dying. Imagine that,
my whole soul purpose in life,
to fit the mold of a clone and then die.
Now I have changed my point of view.
Now I cant see the point of you.
Ive come to a realization,
youre nothing but an aggravation,
but dont worry,
its not like Im gonna hurt you or hate you,
cause I erased you.
why waste time thinking about the dead.
Id rather spend it with my friends.
Passing you by,
passing you by,
passing you by,
getting high on life.
Now I have changed my point of view.
Now I cant see the point of you.
Ive changed my way of thinking,
I no longer try to like those who hate me.
For this you say Im selfish,
For this you say I think Im better.
Well. Jealousy and friendship dont mix well.
Try to break me down I dont think so.
Stab me in the back,
it wont work.
Stab me in the back,
it dont hurt.
Too bad we cant be friends,
cause I would have done anything for you.
But thats all in the past,
you disgust me.
I dont want to know you.
