

Age Of Electric, Bellyup

Age Of Electric

Age Of Electric

Bellyup

Love, life, should be mine to give you

Love, life, should be mine to take

Seal the windows turn on the gas

And empty my wrists in the bath

Jump to see if I can fly

I'll be with you my love, I'll be with you my child

I'm chokin' on my pride a belly full of suicide

Life, Death, I'm not frightened of you

Life, Death, I bid my welcome to you

Take a swim in two ton shoes

Watch my swing from the noose

Down a handful of sleep

I'll be with you my love, I'll be with you my child

I'm gaggin' on my pride, A belly full of suicide

For love or life

You could be my cosmic bride
