

Age Of Electric, Or Whatever

In your love, I should have been more kind
In your love, I could I be so blind?
In your heart, Your wasted, In your mind
Forever or whatever come what may
Our love will live to see another day
Sing your song, Sacred are your words
I bend my knee, And you will be my church
With an angels voice, You offer me no choice
I close my eyes, And I sing away my hurt
In your arms, Salvation, In your mind
You'll never leave me, You'll never hurt me
You didn't love me, Where are you now?
Fell my bite, The thorn in my side
