

Agent Orange, Living In Darkness look at me now, i've got no reason to be like everybody else - so dumb, so happy i like things that bite things that creep at night everybody's asking me what's it like down there?

the concrete floor is cold the walls are bare

i feel safest being alone
living in darkness
living in a world of my own

i'm so selfish doing everything by myself i feel so cold
i'm gonna live to be a couple thousand years old ashes to ashes - dust to dust i thought i knew somebody that i could trust now i'm not so sure

one whole lifetime
i'm never gonna last unless i live until dying is a thing of the past and all these girls i know out turning boys into men i know i am never going down again never again

[repeat chorus]
