

Agent Orange, You Belong To Me

(i can change anything) you're all alone - just staring at the phone as if you're reaching out to dial my number I hear your voice - I hear you call my name you know I only want to change your destiny you know - you belong to me hang up and then - it rings again this time I know it's you - no, I won't answer unplug the phone - I want it to be known I need a chance to cause a new catastrophe
