

Agent Sparks, Peeping Tommy

What started out as a simple attraction
Has given way to a new kind
He called me out
Said I demand perfection
More blue in the bluest sky

Hello tom
How'd you get so low down
Did you bury your sanity?
You peep around gather up your army
I'm reduced to scenery

This is fun
Thanks for your help
You pushed me away
You had to much to say

Peeping Tommy
Where did you come from?
Peeping Tommy
Where did you come from?
Peeping Tommy
Where did you come from?

And what would you do if I killed you
Silently and slowly?
And what would you say if I loved you
After all the blood?

Peeping Tommy
Where did you come from?
Peeping Tommy
Where did you come from?
Peeping Tommy
