

Agents Of Oblivion, Ash Of The Mind the ash of my mind in the back of my throat out on the ocean of curling, fetal smoke the anti-spirit of time just behind these eyes of mine i can remember all that you've forgotten grave dirt in the eyes the darkness there between your thighs the incubus that sucks me dry beneath the voodoo sky

touched but untouchable bleeding black into the blue bayou seem like it was friday high noon i smoked and you bled thought that i was dead i can't remember all that you've forgotten forsaken theres grave dirt in my eyes
the darkness there between your thighs
smile after smile
chasing the last over the lips
smile after smile
the ash of my,
the ash of my,
the ash of my,
the ash of my mind, my mind theres grave dirt in the eyes
(all night)
