Are you there to haunt me?
Imposing ways to rule my world?
Are you there guiding me?
Why do you hide?

Feel you close inside my breath taunting me with my own eyes secretly I hide my face
why do you stare?

Perplexed by the things you say failing with your selfishness can't you be the one to see don't bother me

Jealousy ruins through your veins blaming me for all your stains
Why do you live to die?
die to live

Caged inside form
raged by your norms
wasting life's dream

Is this what you want?
I can't believe it'd be your dream
my love won't let go
it only will be time before you see.
