

Aghora, Kali Yuga

Born within a darkened age microcosmic game of life Endless cycles endless dreams dormant beings we've become

Moving away from light through karmic conditioning

Consciousness self repressed unaware sustains the stress Feeding us with ignorance trapped by time we stay confined

Moving away from light
by carnal conditioning

"Is this real?" you ask.
The reality is locked inside.
Close your eyes.
Take a step into the abyss.
It is far greater than the world you know.
Like the lotus in the mud,
out of darkness comes light.

Facing life
freeing minds
no more lies fear must die

In the abyss is life through the darkness comes light breaking the frames of time eternally man must rise

Rise.
