

Aghora, Satya

Seeing all the vanity
Rituals leaving children blind
Breeding delusive dreams
Confusing the ancient's way of life

Seeking for their sanity
Living life with irony
It's one thing to be free from sin
And one thing to be the sin itself

Truth reveals nothing more but self
Killing all subjective holiness
Racing time ascension will take place
Granting fruits for actions made

Moving through the ageless void
Confined by our ignorance
Why can't we absolve our fears?
To let go and embrace our own beings.

Truth reveals nothing more but self
Killing all subjective holiness
Racing time ascension will take place
Granting fruits for actions made

To reveal the secrets we must invoke the seeds within conquering all our battles lifting the awareness in man

Truth reveals nothing more but self
Killing all subjective holiness
Racing time ascension will take place
Granting fruits for actions made.
