

Agnes Carlsson, Open Up Your Eyes

Your heart feels like gets me run over
You call and ask if you can come over
I say yes even though I know better
But I guess I m hoping that you finally that her
You run back here to my door
Every time when you need a friend
Dont you know that I wanna be more?
So I keep wondering when
Through every tear, every fear I was always here open your eyes
And I could be everything that you baby need open up your, open up your eyes, open your eyes
You say dont know what youll do without me
But I am the only one who cares about you
Its so hard to love someone and try to hide it
If I said if person have for love youre lying
So much that I have to give
I wanna show you what I m feeling inside
I hate to see it when youre hurting like this
When I could treat you so right
Through every tear, every fear I was always here open your eyes
And I could be everything that you baby need open up your, open up your eyes, open your eyes
I will never step or cross the line and tell you what to do
But theres only so much more that I can take
Look at me in a different light
Dont let me walk out of your life
Through every tear, every fear I was always here open your eyes
And I could be everything that you baby need open up your, open up your eyes, open your eyes
