

Agnostic Front, No Mercy

Hypocrite we had a deal.
Nothing ever fucking real
Never trust the outsider.
It's proven once again
You can say what you wanna say
No forgiveness no mercy
Or you can just go straight to hell
No forgiveness no mercy
It was nothing but a big charade tired of Playing these fucking games
Can't wait to see your tombstone slate may
Have been fooled but never played
Fuck you I don't need you!
Turns out I'm better off anyway tomorrow is another day
I don't need no sympathy from someone living in a fantasy
