

Agraceful, The Great I Am

My God so desperately I watched them calling for You
To bring down Your hands
To make this all okay
To make us whole again
And now so desperately I have been calling for You
To bring down Your hands
To make this all okay
To bring me home
And He said
I will carry you home again, home tonight
I will carry you to let you fly, to let you fly
And now so desperately I have been waiting for You
To bring down Your hands
To make this all okay
To make me whole again
I know that this is the way
I know that this is the way You planned for this
