

Agression, Don't Be Mistaken

Don't call on help from the other side
Things might seem tough, but let it ride
Even if the light seems to hurt your eyes
Don't you call on the forces of the night
Don't be mistaken, there are riches, powers, and pleasures there
But don't be mistaken
Don't you get got up in
Don't you mess with the demons lair
You think you know power
Well you haven't seen shit
Deal with the demons
No telling what you'll get
Better let it ride
Don't run and hide
Behind the pentical
Black magic
It'll be your death
