

Ah! Megamissama (Oh! My Goddess), My Heart

Just being close to you doesn't make love happen
Even if I make a puzzle you can't solve it because you're slow
We came to the spring sea, wearing summer clothes
Please cover me gently with your shirt

My heart won't let me say "Please kiss me."
Day dream... My dream gets bigger and disappears
High in the sky

Any girl can be happy. When they fall in love, they start shining. Even if the tears start flowing, or more
I won't be sad

I want to have a secret. I want to feel guilty
Though I know what's happening with you
I pretend I don't Even if my heart races in fall
Or I feel sad in winter
I'll be okay if this precious love bears fruit

I want to be certain of your heart
I believe in your fingers touching me
It's my first true love, which is why
My cheeks are burning

When a girl is in love, she can become beautiful
Doesn't even need red lipstick
Even if she can't sleep, all she does is dream
Overflowing with feelings of love

Any girl can be happy. If she is full of love
She can be invincible
Even if tears start to flow, or her heart aches
If it's because of you, she'll become gentler
