

Ahead To The Sea, Shout

This morning on the radio a reader speaks of their form of protest
No I could not believe my ears protest, for me they are just stupid I confess
I guess

"Refrain:"

I gonna shout a loud a big Fuck You To the National Party and their voters, too Shout

Each single voice for this party makes their idea presentable, I guess And raises their self-confidence, their violence, brings a swing to the right, a repress
I guess

"Refrain"
