

Aidan Bissett, Dumped

I thought of you at my mom's house
Remember that kiss on the couch
Grow my hair out and wait for your call
Just watching paint dry on the wall

You used to climb through my window
But I'm the one who took the fall

I'm getting dumped all the time
You won't stop messing with my mind
For whatever it's worth I'm the last thing you deserve
I'm getting dumped all the time

I kinda want all my clothes back
But you took all that I had
I do dishes while your out on the dance floor
When It rains I feel it pour

I bet your having a good time
While I scroll here on the floor

I'm getting dumped all the time
You won't stop messing with my mind
For whatever it's worth I'm the last thing you deserve
I'm getting dumped all the time

They always find my weakness
the last one cut the deepest
But I don't feel like I'm alone
They always find my weakness
the last one cut the deepest
But I don't feel like I'm alone

I'm getting dumped all the time
You won't stop messing with my mind
For whatever it's worth I'm the last thing you deserve
I'm getting dumped all the time

All the time I'm dumped all the time
