

Aidan Hawken, Understanding

Little darling, why'd you get into this mess you're just an accident waiting to happen i guess you always put our love to the test look baby, you always escape with such ease that said you come and go as you please not sure what to believe you're lucky i'm so understanding you're lucky i'm so undemanding you could run around with any man you want and i act like i'm satisfied but i'm bleeding on the inside, you know watch baby, watch me climb out of this hole i see you laughing but i think it's all just for show you cheat and lie, it's easy anything goes little darling how did i get into this mess i never know what's real or what's part of the test i'm just a sucker open-hearted, i guess but you know
you're lucky i'm so understanding
you're lucky i'm so undemanding
you could run around with any man you want and i act like i am satisfied but i'm bleeding on the inside, you know my love
my love
i act like i am satisfied but i'm bleeding on the inside of love someday you'll fall
but you know i'm always here to pick you up when you fall i'll be at your side look you straight in the eyes tell you i'm the one well
someday you'll fall
look you straight in the eyes tell you i'm the one (repeat till fade...)
