

Aiden, Kid Becomes The Dream

I got your letter, read that mom was gone
(Mom was gone)
I never thought that dad would ever lose his mind (Lose his mind)
I haven't slept it seems like all week long (all week long)
And I've prayed a thousand times

To a god who doesn't take request and all I hear is kid become the dream
Become the dream
You said it once I've heard it twice
You'll always make mistakes in life
Become the dream

I held this letter in my hand and start to shake
then wonder is the end
is this the end?
I took for granted
all the things you've given me
I say this is the end

I'll raise my fist
Shout and scream
I wont resist this life
Become the dream
Become the dream

I'll raise my fist
Shout and scream
I wont resist this life
Become the dream
Become the dream
