

Ailanthus, Nothing

I've just begun to understand the thing that I fear most not in death, not in pain, never anything.. uncertainty has brought me here it has left me standing for years paralyzed with warmth around me camouflaging this nothing so can I face it , my fear admitted and move on Nothing, the fear of knowing it ,the empty of feeling it the nothing that make me insane
