Aimee Mann, Amateur

I'm told the case is now closed So I can come to my senses But when the question is posed I'll have this meagre defence

Chorus

I was hoping that you'd know better than that I was hoping but you're an amateur I was hoping that you'd know better But I've been wrong before

Despite conclusions I drew There was a chance you'd surprise me And you'd be better than new Cause I'd have left otherwise

Chorus

So I wasn't thinking clearly So you didn't think at all I thought that was protocol

Chorus
