

Aimee Mann, Put on some speed

There'll be no payoff today
I'm just refusing to pay
I'm gonna stand here and say &quot;c'mon, do your worst!&quot;
Of course they'll never hear me
But we know 'bout that from the first
I had some lessons to learn
But they are not your concern
I think at least you'd admit
You get what you choose
'cause i'm out here watching
Walking around in your shoes
chorus:

No one is running for help
'cause no one saves you from yourself
You've got solutions you need
Well, put on some speed
You never knew me at all
Now you tell me who's at fault
I left that book on the table
For you to read, but You've got to be willing To pick up the language at least

*** chorus:

No one is running for help
'cause no one saves you from yourself
You've got solutions you need
Well, put on some speed

bridge

[there's one of?] [?????] don't stop it
[that i could deal with?] without 'em
Right after the fall

No longer can we call on our fathers
We're all alone, and it's all for all verse 4 (instrumental):

chorus:

No one is running for help
'cause no one saves you from yourself
You've got solutions you need
Well, put on some speed
