

Air Supply, Too Sentimental

One world, one love, these can never be apart
Whisper in your words what is in your heart
How can I stop this emotion knowing that it's true
Am I too sentimental for you
Have I gone too far
If I knew this feeling is part of you too, girl

Midnight, candlelight
Knowing you are close to me
So much I have inside
I've got to set it free

With you silence can be spoken
If love has broken through
Am I too sentimental for you
Have I gone too far
If I knew that this feeling is part of you too, girl

Ooh, sentimental man
Am I saying too much too soon
Cause I love you
Such a gentle girl
Waiting for you

One love, two touch, we can never be apart
I want you so much for what is in your heart
How can we stop this emotion knowing that it's true
Am I too sentimental for you
Have I gone too far
If I knew that this feeling is part of you too, girl
