

Akeboshi, No Wish

No sound, no wind, no shadow
No sound, no wind, no shadow
No sound, no wind, no shadow
You look so sad and you look so blue
I couldn't resist to walk away
Walking on the empty street
Listening to the empty tape
Nothing else is over me
Nothing else is over me
No sound, no wind, no shadow
How many birds did I see since you left me here?
The sun is glaring at me, just staring at me, with this fake sunshine
No sound, no wind, no shadow
No sound, no wind, no shadow
Why so many people can leave off so easily
Why so many people can talk so much about their dreams
Stay where you were and you hear what you hear
Don't close your eyes coz you miss something
