

Akeboshi, Tall boy

Tears of rains everywhere I go
Untitle this weather along the go
Twenty thousand years to go
To get a ticket for the next goals
Ohh, boy lost another game,
It's all the same, a year of fail
Maybe it's just a game, the sort of same
I kill your faith
Maybe it's deciving
Maybe I should grab the money and run
'Cause today is the day, if I say so
Today is the day if I try so
Tall boy what can you see from there?
Tell me exactly what you see
Ohh, boy don't show your butt to long
Feel you wanna start a game again
Today is the day if I say so
Today is the day if I try so
Today is the day, today's the day
Today is the day if I say so
But never is the time if you do so
If you do so...
