

Akio, Hey hey hello

I wake up its midnight, and it is so dark, I don't know what happened but I'm still alive.
my hands are cold and I'm slowly getting up, searching for doors I want to get out.
panic mode is on when I hear as my phone call I quickly answer but there's no response hello?
where the hell I am because I just can't remember, remember oh.

Hey hey hello is someone here? Shadows moving in the corner.
Hey hey hello, let me out ok? I don't want to stay here longer no-no-no.
I don't like playing these games.

I'm turning on flashlight looking around it is a mess, bottles on the ground.
I found a window! wait why is it locked it really started to make me anxious.
Panic mode is on as I hear something from closet, I thought I'm all alone out here.
I tried to call someone but there's no response hello, why I cant remember. oh oh.
