

Akira The Don, Clones

Yes, this is yet another rapper
Yapping over other people's tracks as if it matters
Living in a glass house, wonder why it gets shattered
Chat that crap and you wonder why you get battered
This is why you can't tack a ticker to this tale
I'll bust this diss, get pissed like Withnail
And I can't stand to see this
Heinous, monument to the penis
Get real, it's 2025
I'm ah, ah, ah, ah, staying alive
Still living in my glass bubble
Hubble and rubble do not trouble me
Living life, jubbly
Del boys, DVDs and magazines
Celebrities and amnesty, and honesty
The monarchy, the rap morrissey
The crap oddity, poverty, pissed off
Belmarsh, Guantanamo, Penelope Pitstop
I'm all alone, so are we all
I'm all alone, so are we all
Oi, it's Bashy., oi, Akira
Now what kind of world are we living in?
'Cause we're all clones, we're just listening and giving in
No say, they steal our money via tax even on low pay
We can't live properly, house prices high
So we gotta rent government property
Twisted priorities for a fucked up government
Who's got a problem with honesty
More like Monopoly
Where who's got the most , money
Has got the authority, over privileged minority
Acting on behalf of the deprived majority
Living in hypocrisy
Where the British government is just
An extended monarchy, honestly
Its like there's no way out but there's gotta be Just gotta find who's got a key
I'm all alone, so are we all
We're all clones
All are one, one are all
All are one, one are all
Who shot HST? Same cunts who shot Kennedy
There's only one remedy, there's your enemy
Click clack blam, Tenner says your enemy's a man
Doctor Kelly knew it, Lennon knew it, Reagan knew it
Nearly blew it like they did the world trade
Ooh it makes one want to move to Clwyd
Anghovio, we like fuck it let's get pissed
Nofio, park bench, graveyard, guest list
I then developed a cyst the size of a fist
It helps to prove that I exist from Caerphilly any villy in fact to fast track
Mastricht tax on rats to cash back
Silly Billy Rilly though you owe 'em a grand son
Best flex them pecks and pretend you're handsome
I'm all alone, so are we all
(Creation sits and Satanists in awe of the Skygod
We're not Great Apes we're just monkeys with IPods)
We're all clones
All are one, one are all
All are one, one are all
I'm all alone, so are we all
(If Jesus died for us, He was wasting His time
The money lenders run the temple we cofio water and wine)

We're all clones
All are one, one are all
All are one, one are all
