

Akon, Birthmark

[Intro]

Yeeaaa yeaaaa, yeeaaa yeaaaa
Ooh ooh ooh, ooh ooh ooh
Yeeaaa yeaaaa, yeeaaa yeaaaa
Ooh ooh ooh, ooh ooh ooh
Yeah

[Verse 1]

I made the mark on February 1st
Between me and you you can call it birth
The beginning of our universe
Remind me of alicia keys verse

Im faling for you

I wish I had an opportunity to not do, what I did to hurt you, now Im here living with regrets

[Chorus]

I know that it was my fault
I know that I got caught
So please dont loose your thoughts
Of me loving you and you loving me

Im on the highway swerving
I aint drunk but Im about to hit the curb'n
Looking at the calendar getting nervous
Just a few more days to the first soul

This the day it all began
One place that it came together
More than a ring or a tattoo
Wish your birthmark that reminds me of you
So lets get on an airplane
Go back to where we began
To that point which is days apart
That stamp right next to your heart

(To your heart, to your heart, to your heart)
To your heart

(To your heart, to your heart, to your heart)
To your heart

(To your heart, to your heart, to your heart)
To your heart

(To your heart, to your heart, to your heart)

[Verse 2]

Get the calendar
Go to august 3rd
First words stay we heard, our first words
First argument, gotta let it go
Cuz it could possibly affect what our future holds
Flipping pages, Now I'm famous
Thinking back I aint seen you in ages
Wishing that I coulda made it less painless
Brings me back right back to the same mess

[Chorus]

I know that it was my fault
I know that I got caught
So please dont loose your thoughts
Of me loving you and you loving me

Im on the highway swerving
I aint drunk but Im about to hit the curb'n
Looking at the calendar getting nervous
Just a few more days to the first soul

This the day it all began
One place that it came together
More than a ring or a tattoo
Wish your birthmark that reminds me of you
So lets get on an airplane
Go back to where we began
To that point which is days apart
That stamp right next to your heart

(To your heart, to your heart, to your heart)
To your heart

(To your heart, to your heart, to your heart)
To your heart

(To your heart, to your heart, to your heart)
To your heart

(To your heart, to your heart, to your heart)

[Verse 3]
January February March April May
June July august is just another day
September October November trying to find a way,
In December to mark my calendar to meet again

If only we can go to that place where me and you know
Theres no faith fronting cheating even lying
The time has come where we stand face to face

[Outro]
This the day it all began
One place that it came together
More than a ring or a tattoo
Wish your birthmark that reminds me of you
So lets get on an airplane
Go back to where we began
To that point which is days apart
That stamp right next to your heart

To your heart

To your heart

To your heart

That stamp right next to your heart

(To your heart, to your heart, to your heart)
To your heart

(To your heart, to your heart, to your heart)
To your heart

(To your heart, to your heart, to your heart)
To your heart

(To your heart, to your heart, to your heart)

That stamp right next to your heart
