

Akos, Get Down

Turn a blind eye on sin
That's creeping deep within
No more words to say
This is more than you might think
It's a love song you might sing
Get on your knees and pray
How can a strong man be
Just as weak as me
The world is so ruthless
If you're lost in the maze
Of some big blinding haze
You're feeling so rootless
Get down, get down
On your knees
And come around
It's your life
Get down
Get down, get down
On your knees
And come around
It's your life
Get down
How can a strong man be
Just as weak as me
The world is so ruthless
If you're lost in the maze
Of some big blinding haze
You're feeling so rootless
Turn a blind eye on sin
That's creeping deep within
No more words to say
This is more than you might think
It's a love song you might sing
