

Akrasia, Flicker & Fade

I think about you sometimes
Cause there's nothing else to think about
I think about you sometimes
All the moments that we've shared
Analyzing every
Conversation in my mind
Looking for some sign
To prove you cared

But I've been here before
I know we could be something more
But all my thoughts of you will flicker and fade away
All my thoughts of you will flicker and fade

I think about you sometimes
Yeah, i guess its slightly masochistic
To think about someone
Who'd break your heart for something new
Do you ever think about me?

Do you ever wish things could be different?
Cause you know someday

I'll be more than just a causality of you

And I've been here before
I know we could be something more
But all my thoughts of you will flicker and fade away
All my thoughts of you will flicker and fade

But what give you the right
To make me lose sleep over you tonight
What gives you the right to make me care

(solo)

I think about you sometimes
Cause there's nothing else to think about
So I stay and play my part
In your little game of acts and scenes
I guess I'll think about you
Till the next girl comes along
And there's no room in my head
For you and all your could-have-beens

Cause I've been here before
I know we could be something more
But all my thoughts of you will flicker and fade away
All my thoughts of you will flicker and fade
Flicker and fade away
Flicker and fade
Flicker and fade away
