

Al Anderson, Be My Woman Tonight

I'm not tryin' to own you
And I'm not tryin' to make you part of me
I don't want to impose you
And I don't want you hangin' around on me
But I'm not tryin' to wonder
I'm not tryin' to find you out
Be my woman tonight
Let's not fall in that hole again
We never really made it any way
But you were always unhappy
And I kept actin' like a child at ten
So, I'm not tryin' to wonder
I'm not tryin' to find you out
Be my woman tonight, yeah
Lately I've been quite lonely
And I thought maybe you'd be home tonight
Maybe we could just talk some
And maybe I could even stay the night
But I'm not tryin' to wonder
I'm not tryin' to find you out
Be my woman tonight
Be my woman tonight
