

Al Anderson, I Just Want To Have You Back Again

I don't wanna be a man who brings home every girl he can
I just want to have you back again
And I don't wanna be a king with servants bringin' me everythin'
I just want to have you back again
Oh, what a lonely feelin' to be all by myself
I can't even eat my breakfast 'cause your plate's up on the shelf
I don't want a beauty queen, I know that's been the way it seems
But I just want to have you back again
And I don't wanna be the dude that only wants to see you nude
I just want to have you back again
Oh, what a lonely feelin' to be all by myself
I can't even eat my breakfast 'cause your plate's up on the shelf
I don't wanna be a man who brings home every girl he can
I just want to have you back again
I just want to have you back again
