

Al B. Sure, Touch You

Say lady remember that night in the garden?
(Let me love your body down)
I didn't touch you then
But I want to touch you now
Touch you, oh baby, let me touch you
Tonight touch you, touch you right now
Tonight touch you yeah
Tonight touch you, touch you right now
Can my love for you stand the test of time?
We'll see if it's just pleasures of the mind
(Pleasures of the mind)
Is it physical? I'm so young
So naive girl, these are new waters
And I hope they're not too deep for me
Touch you, oh baby, let me touch you
Tonight touch you, touch you right now
Tonight touch you yeah
Tonight touch you, touch you right now
If I taste your love I hope you'll understand
(Hope you'll understand)
That my consciousness of life
Is more than just a man
In my secret place of love we can make
So much love and no one is the wiser
But our hearts believe
That when I touch
Touch you, oh baby, let me touch you
Tonight touch you, touch you right now
Tonight touch you yeah
Tonight touch you, touch you right now
You're more than just a flower and you'll grow into a tree
It's more than making love it's sweet harmony
And the way that I touch you, run my tongue down your spine
Ooh, you'll never want another lover, you'll always be mine
And you'll treasure when I touch you, won't you?
Break it down, can you feel it? 'Cause I can yeah
(Ooh, ooh, ooh)
Let us climb together so slow, so slow
Won't you hold me, let me squeeze you
Don't you tease me, let me touch you baby
All night long
(Baby let me touch you)
Tonight touch you, touch you right now
Won't you hold me, let me squeeze you
(Tonight)
Don't you tease me, let me touch you baby
(Touch you)
All night long
(Baby let me touch you)
Tonight touch you, touch you right now
