

Al Denson, Rain Love

Rain, rain, rain
Threw out my old raincoat
Set sail without a boat
For places somewhere
Far beyond my dreams
As the sky came pourin' down
I laid down on the ground
Like I was dreamin'
I let the feelin' wash all over me
Rain, rain love
Come down, all around me
Rain, rain love
So glad, ya finally found me
In time you're gonna recognize
One drop will open up your eyes
Rain, rain love
It's the color of every smile
It's a way to change the tide
When the world is crumblin' down
Round you and me
It's the calm that lifts the storm
It's the promise that keeps you warm
When you don't understand
Just trust the guiding hand that calmed the sea
It falls like rain, rain love
Come down, all around me
Rain, rain love
So glad ya finally found me
In time you're gonna recognize
One drop will open up your eyes
Rain love
It takes his rain to make you realize
No greater love could ever fill the skies
So let it rain
Rain a little bit of
Rain a little bit of
Rain little bit of love on me, yeah
Rain a little bit of
Rain a little bit of
Rain little of love
Rain, rain love
Coming down
Coming down
Rain a little bit of
Rain a little bit of
Rain little bit of love
Rain a little bit of
Rain little bit of love on me
One drop'll open up your eyes
Rain love
