

Ala Boratyn, Darling

You never worry what you wear They always laugh at you but you don't care the books you read are what you treasure most no friends around you are always on your own they say you've never heard of mp3 new mobile ring tones is not what you need each day you ride your funny bike so school oh darling darling
why do you seem so far away
oh darling darling
I wanna know your secret place
oh darling darling
i see your spaceship in the sky
oh darling darling
don't run away I am on your side It's hard to guess what in on your mind You never notice me around There's too much chaos and you don't say much The truth is hidden somewhere in your eyes I don't know where you're coming from One day I'm gonna find out more
