

Ala Boratyn, Don't belive them

Follow me i'll open a secret gate before you
I know a plac where things aren't only back and white
People have happines in their eyes
You can see other faces of a life
I'll never lie to you
I'll never hurt you again
Run away from their empty words
Don't belive them
Don't let it waste you again
Don't belive them
Don't fall in a deep black hole
Don't belive them
They wait for a chance to mislead you
Don't belive them
Now come and stand on the edge of the earth
Then look down and think about your mistakes
Mak it good speed up and just take one step
Makes you feel better cause now you're falling down
