

Ala Boratyn, Strange New Feeling

On a day like everyday i woke up too late again with a new song in my head everything was easy but my friend was feeling down said she had a broken heart and she didnt like my song cause it wasnt a-bout love why are we so crazy about it whats so special about love why cant we just live without all this falling in and falling out there was gossip in the air someone was in love again someone said it could be me and i couldnt stand it felt like running way with the song still in my head and a strange new feeling too you were right behind me
