

Ala Boratyn, The Shadow Lands

Whatcha do when you see their eyes looking from under black hoods they shine as they emerge coming from a very terrifying gate its a place where only you can see the lost faces of souls shiver with cold from time to time they got a reason to be happy with the tears that stain your cheek you dont get no future they take all your plans you dont see no future in the shadow lands
they wont entertain ya they dont understand so dont let them take you to the shadow lands they steal you piece by piece sneak in your sensitive memory they take your soul your heart is turned to stone your future plans they break like a glass theres a place where only you can see the lost faces of souls shiver with cold they follow me they follow everyone they gonna get you coz youre already under ground
