

Ala Boratyn, Too Much Words

Yesterday has ended
Today is today
What have I done?
What have you done this?
And that what was yesterday suddenly gone□□
What now happened with me in this state of emptiness?
Too much words I have in the heart
Too much words I have in the soul
Too much words I have in the mind
Too much words I have in the everywhere
Oh, today ends
Tomorrow is coming
Please remove me
on this chasm of darkness
What now happened with me in this state of emptiness?
And that what was yesterday suddenly gone□□
Too much words I have in the heart
Too much words I have in the soul
Too much words I have in the mind
Too much words I have in the everywhere
