

Alabama, Starting Tonight

If I could design forever
I'd put you and me together each night
Together each night
The best I can do is promise
I'll love you true and honest and right
I'll love you right
Starting tonight and from now on
I will be yours and yours alone
Dependable and strong, a rock by your side
I'll be beside you through the storm
You'll have a fire to keep you warm
Not just for now but from now on, starting tonight
If a man ever loved a woman
Then surely this is the moment for me
The moment for me
I've never known a feeling
So deep, so real as being with you
As being with you
Starting tonight and from now on
I will be yours and yours alone
Dependable and strong, a rock by your side
I'll be beside you through the storm
You'll have a fire to keep you warm
Not just for now but from now on, starting tonight
