

Alabaster Box, Fine

got this burning deep inside me that i know its got a hold of me and i can not let it go but im sick and tired of living like im never here i want this fire to be ever near yeah

CHORUS

just one day in your love i would give all my world cos its making me feel so fine and this love that you bring yeah its making me sing now i know that im feeling fine could this be an everlasting love i think so now i have found you i will follow where you go i want this to be forever you and me cos without you i would never be yeah
