

Alabaster Box, You Are The One

soem days I want to fly far away from here and some days I feel like crying but everyday is just a little further up the road and every day is so much closer to you yeah

CHORUS

you are the one who saved me you are the one who carried me home you are the one who loved me the one

today I make this promise im coming back to you today im starting over now this time I will remember you'll always be with me now my time is forever with you cos you are the reason why I live I cant deny what you're doing to me now I know why you catch me when I break my fall so why do I hold the fear of letting go
