

Alain Cruz, If I say

Girl you've been the greatest prize any man can ask for Sacrifice everything... for a love.. with your presence... i am breathless.. i wanna hold you forever..
I fall for you more and more when i look into your eyes baby im glad you found your way in my life hoping one day you will be my bride so i can love you forever...
if i say i love you a thousand times
it would never be enough ah ahh
i would sail clear across the desert mile
just to feel your tender touch
if i say i love you a thousand times
it would never be enough ah ahh
i would sail clear across the desert mile
just to feel your tender touch feels like yesterday when it all began we had our first kiss... our first romance.. whispered softly and after leaving me that you would love me forever... from the moment i... fell for you.. no matter the circumstance... we will make it through just wanna hold ya, let our love take over
so i can love you forever...
if i say i love you a thousand times
it would never be enough ah ahh
i would sail clear across the desert mile
just to feel your tender touch
if i say i love you a thousand times
it would never be enough
i would sail clear across the desert mile
just to feel your tender touch (your tender touch...)
its never enough...
ohhh ohhh ohhhh
its never enough...
whoaaa ohh ohh whoaaa
if i say... i love you
(it would never be enough)
never...
i would sail... across the desert mile (to feel your tender touch)
your touch..
if i say i love you a thousand times
(it would never be enough)
no it would never be enough
i would sail across the desert mile ohh (to feel your tender touch)
your touch..
a thousand times...
(it would never be enough)
it will never be...
i would sail clear across the desert mile
jst to feel your touch yea wanna feel one kiss..
your lips like this..
there'll never be a love... like this i'll miss whoaa oh
just to feel one touch baby (to feel your tender touch)
it would never be enough no no no
