

Alan Jackson, If Dallas Was In Tennessee

Dallas packed her suit-case
and drove off in the brand new car I bought her.
She made leavin' me look easy, I wish she'd made it look a little harder.

I took her out of Texas, when she was just a girl,
But ol' Tennessee an' me, couldn't take Texas out of her.

Oh how I wish Dallas was in Tennessee,

If I could move Texas east,

Then she'd be here with me.

Then nothing else would come between the two of us,

If Dallas was in Tennessee.

(Inst. break.)

By now she's leavin' Memphis,

And ev'rything we had behind her.

Lord I hope the gold band on her hand,

will serve as a reminder,

that true love is a treasure, that's very seldome found,

and you can't stay together, if there's no common ground.

Oh how I wish Dallas was in Tennessee,

If I could move Texas east,

Then she'd be here with me.

Then nothing else would come between the two of us,

If Dallas was in Tennessee.

Oh if Dallas was, in Tennessee.

Dallas packed her suit-case,

an' drove off in the brand new car I bought her.
