Alan Jackson, It's Time You Learned About Good

(Alan Jackson)

Well I've been on the wrong side
Of the front door too often
Watched you slam it in my face
Well I may have learned the hard way
I'm not a soft one
Tonight I'm standin in your place

Cause you taught me a lot about leavin Won't even have to try So here's your lesson in heartache and grievin And a chance for you to cry Cause it's time you learned about goodbye

I've stood behind you And I've laid beside you But I won't do that anymore Cause I'm tired of bein Just here when you want me Tonight I'm walkin out that door

Cause you taught me a lot about leavin Won't even have to try So here's your lesson in heartache and grievin And a chance for you to cry Cause it's time you learned about goodbye

It's time you learned about goodbye
