Alan Jackson, There Goes

There you were standin' in the shadows Well I just looked where I don't see I'm still pretendin I don't need you I won't let you know you're killin me Like some big black widow spider You know just how to catch your prey I'm actin like it doesn't matter And you sneak up from Behind and whisper my name There goes your paralyzin eyes There goes your tantalizin smile There goes my act of playin it cool And there go the words I meant to say There go the games I wanted to play There goes my heart fallin for you Well I think you're playin with me darlin You like to see what you can do Well I should be fishin for Blue Marlin Instead of bein hooked again by you There goes your paralyzin eyes There goes your tantalizin smile There goes my act of playin it cool And there go the words I meant to say There go the games I wanted to play There goes my heart fallin for you Yeah there goes your paralyzin eyes There goes your tantalizin smile There goes my heart fallin for you There goes my heart fallin for you
