Alan Jackson, They Call Me A Playboy

They call me a playboy As I'm making my rounds Chasing the bright light Of each night spot in town

Though I never show it, My heart's breaking in two They may call me a playboy But I'm just lonesome for you

I once had a real love That was when I had you Now I'll never feel love With somebody new

This false front I'm wearing Is just to cover my blues They may call me a playboy But. I'm just lonesome for you

I once had a real love That was when I had you Now I'll never feel love With somebody new

This false front I'm wearing Is just to cover my blues They may call me a playboy But. I'm just lonesome for you

They may call me a playboy But. I'm just lonesome for you..
