

Alan Parsons, Blue Blue Sky (Part 2)

I only know what I can see
So I imagine what could be
Where the horizon cuts the air
Look for me out there

Someday I'll touch the blue, blue sky
Someday I'll touch the blue, blue sky

If I could kiss this earth goodbye
And cruise the never-ending sky
Where the horizon cuts the air
Wait for me out there

Someday I'll touch the blue, blue sky...
