

Alan Parsons, Turn It Up

It's no good believing in somebody else
If you can't believe in yourself
You give them the reason
To take all the power and wealth
It's no good you trying to sit on the fence
And hope that the trouble will pass
'Cause sitting on fences
Can make you a pain in the ass

If there's something you find to believe in
Then the message must get through
So don't just sit in silence
When you know what to do

Turn it up
Turn it up, make it louder
Turn it up
Turn it up, make it louder

There's no conversation if nobody speaks
And nothing gets done in the end
There's no confrontation
When fantasy makes you its friend
So much injustice, too many lies
We don't have to look very far
But nothing will change if we leave things
The way that they are

If there's something you find to believe in
Then the message must get through
So don't just sit in silence
When you know what to do

Turn it up
Turn it up, make it louder
Turn it up.
Turn it up, make it louder
